CEREMONIAL ITEMS - Spotlight on Hampton History Museum's Volunteers

Mayor Tuck called upon the City's Communications Strategist, Robin McCormick, who highlighted volunteers at the Hampton History Museum.

Ms. McCormick greeted those on the dais and welcomed those in the audience and those watching from home. She shared that these dedicated individuals share a common passion of a love for Hampton's rich history and desire to share it with others. Through their tireless efforts they keep the museum running smoothly, lead tours, creating engaging programs, and ensure these vital institution continues to be a cornerstone of our community.

The volunteers were presented with plaques and photographed.

Mayor Tuck thanked the volunteers and noted the Legislative Session would begin at 6:30 p.m.

The following volunteers were recognized: Donna Berg, Nyree

Dowdy, Midge Eason, Ruthann Kellum, Msesippi, Luis Otero, Clara Prillaman, and Ron Romero. Also recognized, but unable to be present, were Jean Helms and Ron Ponzar.

ADJOURNMENT
