DONNIE R. TUCK PRESIDED

INVOCATION - Councilman Steven Brown

Councilman Brown gave the invocation.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO FLAG

MAYOR'S COMMENTS

Mayor Tuck shared that Hampton City Schools' on-time graduation rate for 2021 is 96.86 which is the second highest in the region, second only to Virginia Beach. The drop out rate is the lowest of the fifteen localities in the region at 0.34%.

He also shared that Hampton is considered one of the safest cities in the country. There were only two localities in this region with Hampton in the mid size category and Virginia Beach in the large size category. This was based on a survey of 3,000 cities.

Subdivision Exception

12. 21-0235 Subdivision Exception Application by Christopher R. and Amy W. Barbour for Exceptions to Subdivision Ordinance Sections 35-10(B)(2), 35-10(B)(6), And 35-71(H) at 13 Thomas Nelson Drive

Presentation - Applicant

Ms. Glass read the title for the item.

City Planner Garek Hannigan greeted those on the dais and reminded everyone that the subdivision process is completed administratively by the Development Services Center and must be presented to the Planning Commission and City Council when an exception to the ordinance is requested. He explained that, unlike land use applications typically seen by City Council which are measured against policy and plans, subdivision exceptions are requests to modify the subdivision ordinance and require demonstration by the applicant that the request meets all six criteria found within the ordinance. The request for this item was made by the applicant to facilitate a boundary line adjustment.

Mr. Hannigan reviewed the first few slides of the presentation which described the site location and the requested exceptions (sections). He noted that these sections work together to prohibit irregular lots which are prohibited because they are more difficult to develop and redevelop in the future. In this case, the applicant is seeking to conduct a boundary line adjustment which would alter the existing developed 4-sided lot and create a new 8-sided lot.

The next several slides of the presentation displayed images of the lot and surrounding lots as they currently exist, the proposed adjustment, and the proposed plat.

Mr. Hannigan reviewed the final slides of the presentation which listed the exception criteria and disclosed staff's analysis indicating that the application does not meet criteria 1, 3 and 5. He stated that staff and the Planning Commission recommend denial of the item; however, if approved, staff recommends 1 condition.

Mr. Hannigan opened the floor for questions and/or comments. No questions or comments were posed.

PUBLIC HEARING:

Mayor Tuck opened the public hearing.

Mr. Christopher Barbour, the applicant, gave a presentation. He displayed images of the lot; provided a description of the boundary line; and spoke about advantages and disadvantages of easements. During the presentation, Mr. Barbour also shared how his proposed plan would benefit the City and asked for Council's assistance with the project including their approval for him to purchase the property. The details of his proposal and request for assistance are outlined in the presentation.

Mr. Barbour opened the floor for questions and/or comments from Council.

In response to Mayor Tuck, Mr. Barbour explained that he did not file the request sooner because up until now, the seller was not in a position to sell due to his mortgage being new. He also explained that the back property line would be against the Sarah Bonwell Hudgins line allowing the property to abut Sarah Bonwell Hudgins.

Mayor Tuck reminded Mr. Barbour that Council adopted this subdivision ordinance in 2011; therefore, Council would have to look beyond its actions to grant this exception. In addition, this does not meet the criteria for an exception.

Discussion took place between Vice Mayor Gray and Mr. Barbour. Topics of discussion included Mr. Barbour's intention to build on the property; Mr. Barbour's desire for more depth on his property; future buyers of the property; and the manner in which the fence was built on the property.

Councilwoman Brown inquired about natural elements in the triangle of land that makes it distinctive. Mr. Barbour shared that previously there was a large oak tree on an adjacent property, but it came down years ago.

Mayor Tuck opened the floor for additional questions and/or comments. No questions or comments were posed. Mayor Tuck closed the public hearing.

A motion was made by Councilman Brown and seconded by Councilmember Bowman, that this Subdivision Exemption be denied . The motion carried by the following vote:

Aye: 7 - Councilmember Bowman, Councilmember Weston Brown, Councilmember Brown, Vice Mayor Gray, Councilmember Hobbs, Councilmember Snead and Mayor Tuck

Rezoning

13. 21-0271 Rezoning Application by HRCN LLC to Rezone a Parcel at the Northeast Corner of Commander Shepard Boulevard and North Campus Parkway [LRSN 13004555] Totaling +3.26 Acres from Hampton Roads Center 2 (HRC-2) District to Limited Commercial (C-2) District with Proffered Conditions to Permit the Development of a Commercial Retail Center

Ms. Glass read the title for the item.

Chief Planner Donald Whipple greeted those on the dais and noted that this is part 2 of an overall project. Part 1 took place approximately five years ago with the rezoning to allow the development of the Luna Pointe Apartment Buildings.

Mr. Whipple reviewed the slide presentation which provided information about the application related to site location, zoning, the Future Land Use Plan, the Hampton Community Plan, and the Hampton Roads Center North Master Plan.

Mr. Whipple shared that each of the four quadrants of the intersection of North Campus Parkway and Commander Shepard Boulevard are specifically identified as having land use recommendations in the categories of signature classic office site, hotel or retail services.

The next two slides of the presentation displayed images of the concept site plan and a few illustrations of the site from two vantage points as provided by the applicant.

Mr. Whipple reviewed the final slides of the presentation which listed some of the proffers associated with the application and summarized staff's analysis for rezoning the land from HRC-2 to C-2.

Mr. Whipple stated that the Planning Commission and staff recommend approval of the item with 11 proffered conditions and then opened the floor for questions. No questions were posed.

PUBLIC HEARING:

Mayor Tuck opened the public hearing.

Mr. Stephen Brewer, the attorney for the applicant, thanked Mr. Whipple for the great presentation about the project; thanked Council for the opportunity to appear before them; noted that a few other partners who worked on the project were also in attendance; and thanked staff and all involved.

Mr. Brewer then made the following statement: The staff report indicates that the applicant is seeking to conditionally rezone 3.26 acres in the Hampton Roads Center North Campus. The request is to rezone it from Hampton Roads Center 2 (HRC-2) to Limited Commercial (C-2). I think that the request fits in very well with the development that the applicants affiliate has made of the Luna Pointe Apartments (which I think you are familiar with). If you approve this rezoning, it will enhance the area by permitting a broader range of commercial, retail and service uses. As Mr. Whipple mentioned, this rezoning is necessary to permit the applicant to have the ability to develop a more mixed use project with a wider range of uses than you would have in a typical business park. As Mr. Whipple mentioned, the mixed use approach is becoming more prevalent in business parks as people seek work places with greater services and amenities. A mix of commercial, retail and service uses will attract more small businesses. You've got the five buildings there, so you will have more opportunities for small businesses to occupy the site. They will have more workers and it will provide a greater variety of jobs and wages. The proposed rezoning, we believe, is also consistent with the master plan which encourages compact, high-density mixed use development which will create workable communities and be efficient use of land as well as a high quality design and site planning that is compatible with the surrounding development. What's important to the applicant is the change to the C-2 zoning will permit a little bit of relaxation with regard to some of the typical building and parking setbacks and green space requirements that you would have in your more traditional office park which would not fit so well in some respects on this narrow lot. In connection with the proffers the applicant is making, the rezoning will permit some additional uses which would include things like a spa, a dry cleaning collection, a pick up center, a small scale print shop, maybe a private postal service and various restaurant uses, some with and some without retail alcoholic beverage licenses. Finally, I would mention in your materials that you received, there's a letter from the Economic Development Authority indicating that the Authority has approved the applicants conceptual site plan and building elevations. In addition, as Mr. Whipple mentioned, both staff and the Planning Commission have recommended approval. The applicant respectfully requests that you approve the application as submitted.

Mr. Brewer opened the floor for questions. No questions were posed.

Mayor Tuck noted that no other individuals had signed up to speak and then closed the public hearing.

A motion was made by Councilmember Chris Snead and seconded by Councilmember Steven Brown, that this Zoning Ordinance - Map be approved with eleven (11) conditions. The motion carried by the following vote:

Aye: 7 - Councilmember Bowman, Councilmember Weston Brown, Councilmember Brown, Vice Mayor Gray, Councilmember Hobbs, Councilmember Snead and Mayor Tuck

Ordinances

14. 21-0267 Ordinance to Amend and Re-Enact the Zoning Ordinance of the City of Hampton, Virginia by Amending Sections 3-2 Entitled, "Table of Uses Permitted" and Section 3-3 Entitled, "Additional Standards on Uses," to Modify Where and How Multifamily Dwellings and Upper-Floor Dwelling Units are Permitted

Community Development Director Terry O'Neill provided the following background information: In 2019, work sessions and conversations began about ways to improve the quality of development in multifamily projects and ways to be strategic about where these projects should go, taking into consideration that most of Hampton's land is built out. Following those work sessions, City Council directed staff to move forward with a two-part option: (1) a temporary proposal which would require use permits in all sections of the City except for selected areas that already had enhanced development standards in their zoning districts and (2) develop a base zoning district for Coliseum Central. Last winter, staff proposed phase 1 of the approach; however, at the City Council public hearing, representatives of the Coliseum Central Business Improvement District (BID) voiced their concern about proceeding with this approach; therefore, Council deferred action and allowed staff and Coliseum Central BID representatives a six month period to come to a resolution. After several months of work, it became clear that this was a complicated matter and both parties would not meet that deadline. Council granted an extension at Coliseum Central BID representatives request; however, that deadline could not be met either. Coliseum Central BID representatives reluctantly agreed that Council should move forward with the interim measure while staff continued to work on a solution for their district.

Mr. O'Neill introduced Senior City Planner, Allison Jackura, to provide an update on the modified proposal.

Ms. Jackura provided a brief outline of the presentation; shared a map which displayed the districts where multifamily would currently be allowed by-right; and reviewed a slide which provided information about how other cities regulate multifamily land uses.

The next several slides of the presentation provided information about the proposed phased approach (as mentioned by Mr. O'Neill) and the proposed changes for phase 1 for the two uses (upper-floor dwelling units and multifamily dwellings).

Ms. Jackura emphasized that staff added a clause indicating that existing apartment complexes are legally conforming and will be allowed to continue to operate and maintain themselves as usual with the exception of an expansion, in which case, compliance with these changes would be required.

Ms. Jackura spoke about the proposed additional use standards described in the next few slides of the presentation.

Ms. Jackura summarized the proposed amendments; noted that the zoning ordinance amendment would take effect immediately; and shared the list of community stakeholders who provided feedback following staff presentations.

Ms. Jackura said that staff and the Planning Commission recommend approval of the amendment and then opened the floor for questions and comments.

In response to Vice Mayor Gray's question about height maximums for apartment buildings, Ms. Jackura explained that different areas have different building height maximums. For example, the downtown special district has height maximums which vary according to location while most buildings in the Coliseum Central area are zoned C-2 which is standard for that area.

Vice Mayor Gray spoke about the need for more apartments and living units downtown, and the need for more density to attract grocery stores and other businesses and asked if the current design standards and maximum heights allow the type of density needed downtown. He asked if that would require the design standards and zoning in downtown to be amended in order to allow more density?

Ms. Jackura noted that she could not speak specifically about the future, but the Goodyear site being built downtown allows for up to six stories; therefore, that district allows for a significant number of stories and has potential to achieve that density.

PUBLIC HEARING:

Mayor Tuck opened the public hearing, announced that no one had signed up to speak at the public hearing and then closed the public hearing.

A motion was made by Councilmember Chris Snead and seconded by Councilmember Billy Hobbs, that this Zoning Ordinance - Text be approved. The motion carried by the following vote:

Aye: 7 - Councilmember Bowman, Councilmember Weston Brown, Councilmember Brown, Vice Mayor Gray, Councilmember Hobbs, Councilmember Snead and Mayor Tuck

PUBLIC COMMENT

Ms. Glass read the protocol for the public comment period.

Mr. Marlin Manley greeted those on the dais and made the following statement: I just wanted to come here to say that if I had known earlier that there would have been no approval or a vote for one of the buildings off of Commander Shepard (Boulevard). One thing I just want to sit back and say is that one thing we do need to focus on as a City is I don't want to see another bone yard, for lack of better terms. We have a lot of these projects and a lot of strip malls and different things that are built and eventually businesses don't last and all of a sudden we are just left with this abandoned building on the side. You can go further down Mercury (Boulevard) and you can see something like that. I do not want to see that where I live. I live on Baker Farm Drive and that's right around the corner from me. A lot of people who live in those apartment complexes aren't driving, so unless it's going to be businesses that are grocery stores or something like that, I do feel like it is probably going to fail. I think our resources can be better spent on repurposing other buildings and other spaces we already have. Since it was also stated earlier that we are a mature City, going down and tearing down more trees and more natural resources that can't be replenished. I just wanted to make that statement. Thank you all for your time and continue the good work. Thank you.

Mr. Craig Knopp greeted those on the dais and made the following statement: It's been a while since I've been here. Sorry about that. I've had a few things come up here lately. A lot of volunteer opportunities that I've taken advantage of. Speaking of volunteering, as you guys know, last year or so, I've been very active. I like to come here to City Council meetings. A couple of years ago, my mind had changed. If you asked me a couple years ago if I ever would have come to a City Council meeting, I would have laughed at you. Now, I look forward to coming here. I love coming here. I love learning new stuff. Like I said, sometimes, it is not the stuff I want to learn - how tall grass is and what the standard is for the City. Long story short is my life has changed over the last couple of years here. I like getting involved in the City. One of those aspects of getting involved is volunteering. I have a couple of groups. I'm heading the outreach portion of that group. I got involved in that and I like going off on my own too. I started a group called the Peninsula Project, nothing official - just a couple of people that like to get together and come out here and do some clean ups and some other little odds and ends and stuff. What I've found is that not everybody wants to go clean. For me, I like volunteering and coaching. That was one aspect I had just started earlier this fall. I love it. That is one of the best things in my life, I think. I had an opportunity and I took it and now I love it. Every week, I show up. I see these kids develop and I hope I'm helping. If not, I'm hoping that the parents are helping. Knowing that I'm sitting there having an impact on somebody else's kids along with my own kids - I love it. I'm always looking for helping people to get out and volunteer. Like I said, not everybody's cup of tea is going out picking up trash and other stuff like that, so what I was wondering is do we have a group or resource out there (this is probably for the City Manager) that is a bank of volunteer groups looking for people? I've asked earlier this year about the social services or people services (I forgot what it's called) and then the other group that was over there that they do the knights for nights and stuff like that. I do have a couple emails on that kind of stuff, but just a general bank of volunteers or groups looking for volunteers that if I came across somebody that said, yeah, I like doing this, then I could point them to the City Manager and say contact them. Do we have anything available? That's all I have.

Mayor Tuck noted that the City Manager will have an opportunity to respond to Mr. Knopp's question. He also thanked Mr. Knopp for his volunteerism, particularly as a challenge in the City is trying to find mentors and positive role models for some of the young people in our City. He thanked all of those in the community who volunteer on a regular basis and have for years. He noted that we can always use more volunteers and then turned the floor over to Ms. Bunting to speak about some of the places Mr. Knopp and others may be able to volunteer.

City Manager Bunting stated that the City does have organizations that inquire about volunteers. She explained that some of the larger cleanup projects require more people and then shared that one area in particular that always needs volunteers is maintaining historic cemeteries that are privately owned and cannot be cleaned by the City. In other cases, we try to link people with volunteer work involving their passion. For example, Bluebird Gap Farm could potentially be a place for someone who loves animals to volunteer. She encouraged those who are interested in volunteering to reach out to the City via the 311 contact center or the City Manager's Office.
