Addressing Crime Issues

- Crime is a community problem that requires a community solution.
- Requires problem-solving partnerships with the entire community including the faith community, businesses, community organizations, non-profits, concerned citizens, etc.
- Requires reinforcement of the community norm that violence is not an acceptable means of conflict resolution.
- Requires swift, fair and just consequences for those who do harm in our community.

How Can Citizens Assist

- Become active in their neighborhoods (Neighborhood Watch, Civic Organizations, Faith Communities etc.)
- Assist police in solving crime, if they have information
- Give of their time, talents, and /or resources to organizations that provide positive opportunities to youth and young adults
- Formally and / or informally mentor young people.
- Actively seek assistance for those who you know need help
- Visibly model the behavior that we wish to see in our communities

Recruiting & Retention
