Baby Talk	9/1/1999		Monthly	Babytalk has all the information expectant and new parents want and need — from health and safety issues to the latest and greatest products for baby.
Business 2.0	11/1/2002		Monthly	Business 2.0 magazine explores the new ways smart companies -- and the people who lead them -- are using strategy, technology, and innovation to succeed. Every story highlights the key strategies, the breakthrough trends and technologies, and the game-changing ideas that are redefining the business landscape. The magazine is published by the FORTUNE Group at Time Inc., a Time Warner company
Entertainment Weekly	1/8/1999		Weekly (Fri)	Entertainment Weekly aims to be the best entertainment magazine in the world. That means we serve our readers, with the most comprehensive guide to current movies, television, music, books, DVDs and videos, and more. That means we entertain our readers, with stories that give them unmatched access to the creative process behind the products they love. That means we lead our readers, by telling them about the best new stuff that's just around the corner. And we do all this with passion and energy, and with photography, design, and writing that are as fun and surprising as the industry we cover.
Essence	1/1/2003		Monthly	Essence Communications Inc. publishes ESSENCE, the preeminent lifestyle magazine for today's African-American woman. The publication has a monthly circulation of 1,063,000 and a readership of more than seven million. The first issue of ESSENCE hit the newsstands in May 1970, with a circulation of 50,000. In 2003, ESSENCE ranked seventh on Advertising Age's "A-List," which recognizes magazine excellence -- the first time that an African-American targeted publication received this honor.
