Consideration of appointments to Hampton Commission on the Arts

PURPOSE/BACKGROUND:

Ms. Deborah Reese was originally appointed to the Hampton Commission on the Arts on March 13, 2013 and served her first term until March 31, 2016. She continued to serve until September 14, 2016, when Council reappointed her to a second term which was to expire on June 30, 2020.

Ms. Reese called the Council Office on September 28, 2016, and indicated that she is not able to accept the reappointment due to scheduling conflicts. She does wish to remain an active board bank applicant.

This creates an immediate vacancy for an individual to be appointed to a four year term.

The current demographic of the board is:

| Name of Board | # of Members | # of Vacancies | Gender | Age | Ethnicity |
|--------------------------------|--------------|----------------|------------------------|---------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| Hampton on the Arts Commission | 11 | 3 | 2 - Male 9 - Female | 4 - 70+ 4 - 70 - 52 3 - 51 - 34 | 6 - African American 5 - Caucasian |

There are individuals in the Board Bank who have expressed a desire to serve on this board. Those applications are being provided to Council.

SUMMARY:

Regina Mays - previously served 2 terms, came off in June, 2015
Gaylene Kanoyton - previously served 2 terms, came off in June, 2015
Thomas Cagley - serving as TS rep on Cultural Alliance (regional body)
Rick Allison - pending application, not yet complete

Recommendation:

Council is being asked to appoint an individual to a four year term on the Hampton Commission on the Arts.
