Briefing on the proposed Wubit Water Sports Park

BACKGROUND:

This briefing will provide information on the Wubit Water Sports Park, a seasonal recreation attraction that appeals to a wide variety of ages and abilities. Proposed location, design, and key operation features will be discussed. Feedback on the proposed location is requested.

The approximate purchase price of the proposed park is $180,000. Funding for the initial purchase of this equipment is anticipated to come from Strategic Priority Project funding designated for water sports.
